Welcome from our CEO

Abacus Learning Centre delivers outcomes for autistic children on the Mornington Peninsula. Many of our passionate team say it's the best job they've ever had.

We'd love to hear from you if you:

- Are a continuous learner who wants to help children reach their goals
- Have high energy and a sense of fun
- Can commit to two or more days per week

We offer extensive training for all our ABA therapists. You will feel supported and challenged at the same time. No day is ever the same, but you'll always leave smiling.

There's ABA therapy and then there's ABACus, where therapy is led by the child and life changing skills are learnt.

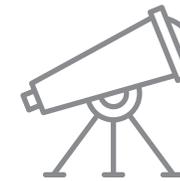

Taimi Clinch

About Abacus

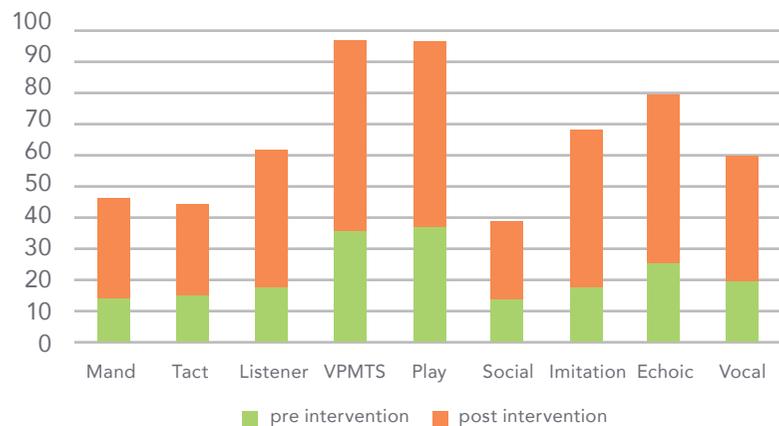

A small group of parents and supporters shared an inspired dream to provide centre-based Early Intensive Behaviour Intervention (EIBI) for children with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD).

The benefits of providing crucial therapy at a young age are based on extensive clinical experience and research.

Since its inception, Abacus has helped over 600 families improve their child's ability to more effectively learn in social and educational settings.

2022 & Beyond...

Abacus aims to harness the immense potential in our organisation to make a positive and widespread impact on the lives of autistic people.

Demand for autism services continues to grow as more families access funds through the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS).

This year we have been able to enrol many more students into our current centres and with our new centre opening soon we will be expanding our service to support another 30 young autistic people through our early intervention program for 2-6 year olds and the Count on Abacus program for Primary School aged students.

Our future plans are to expand into surrounding regions, such as the City of Casey, and continue helping many more families access our services.

Our Community

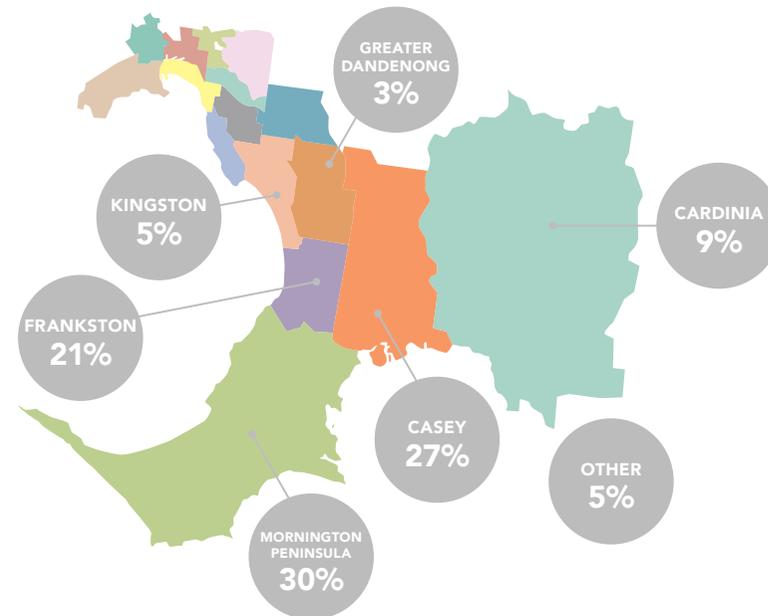

Abacus Learning Centre is located 75km south of Melbourne CBD, in Hastings on the Mornington Peninsula, known for its village atmosphere, bay beaches, wineries restaurants and fresh farm-gate produce.

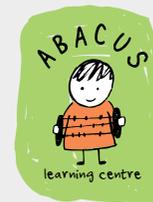

Families come from a range of socio-economic and cultural backgrounds. All services and supports are provided in a flexible manner to ensure all cultural considerations, including ethnicity and language, are incorporated into planning and programming.

As a registered charity and not-for-profit organisation, the centre relies on the efforts of staff, families, friends and supporters in raising funds and securing donations. Businesses also contribute significant in-kind support, this ongoing kindness is invaluable and contributes to the sense of community that has developed at Abacus.

Building Development

We are very excited to announce construction of our new purpose-built centre is well underway.

This is no ordinary building. Abacus worked with students at RMIT University to help create an environment where both staff and students could thrive.

Design considerations included managing sensory inputs from lights and sounds, ensuring easy circulation so people can move between activities as seamlessly as possible and organising spaces into 'high stimulus' and 'low stimulus' areas.

All of our centres feature individual therapy rooms, sensory play areas, gross motor playrooms, private meeting rooms plus all the amenities for a working education centre.

We are hopeful our centres will continue to provide an important insight into addressing interior design and learning environments from a non neuro-typical position.

Early April 2022 - works commence

Groundbreaking Ceremony conducted to mark the commencement of on-site works at our High Street location.

Late April 2022 - 20% completion

Ausco Modular begin construction in the factory of the bespoke modular units.

Mid-May 2022 - 40% completion

Works continue both on-site and in the factory.

July 2022

Deliver of modular units to site.

September 2022

Anticipated completion date (subject to COVID and material delays)

Working with us

We know it is important to develop a team culture that is focussed on continual improvement, remains respectful of individual differences, and values the contribution of all Team Members.

Staff understand and value the rights of people with a disability and aim to provide families with the opportunity to exercise choice.

We engage with staff and our community to ensure everyone is aware of the initiatives and progress we are making.

As Abacus Learning Centre continues to grow and establish new services, we fully understand the importance of every Team Member to the success of the business in meeting the needs of our clients and achieving our Mission and Vision.

Our Staff

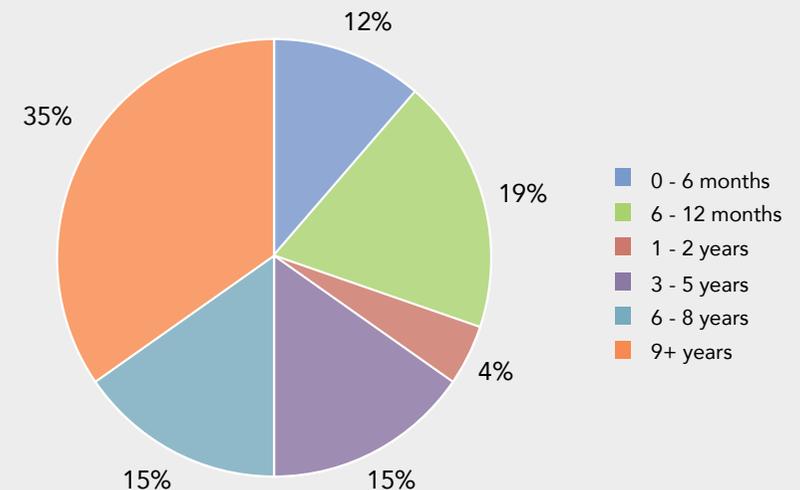

Delivered by inspirational and dedicated staff, Abacus programs consistently deliver best practice therapy services to its clients, making a profound impact on the lives of children with autism, their families and the wider community.

People are at the heart of what we do, and we are committed to supporting and celebrating our talented and compassionate Team Members.

A recent organisational review found that our staff love coming to work, feel valued, empowered, and continue to feel a part of something special.
